SUMMARY

I founded and run Miyagi Sánchez, e-commerce infrastructure for everyone with the lowest possible entry point: a merchant describes their business in one sentence and gets a shop ready to take payments and share. Before that I owned a $70M+ global rewards portfolio at AB InBev, integrated commerce platforms through Linio's acquisition by Falabella, and led a Bitcoin remittance platform to 5,000+ active users.

CURRENT

Miyagi Sánchez · Golden Frijoles

2025 — Present

Founder & Product Lead · Prompt-to-shop commerce infrastructure and agentic product platform

- Miyagi Sánchez: e-commerce infrastructure for everyone, from prompt to shop. A merchant describes their business in one sentence and gets a shop ready to take payments, free to start and with 0% platform commission.
- One shop, every channel: their own domain, a catalog link, PDF and WhatsApp / Instagram feed, in-person sales (card by QR, transfers, offline cash, payment links), the marketplace and AI shopping assistants.
- Payments go straight to the merchant by card, Mercado Pago, SPEI or cash; the business model rests on optional extras such as custom domains and print ads, not commission.
- Both products built with AI agent teams: 1,000+ commits on Miyagi Sánchez since June 2026 and 250+ merged pull requests on Golden Frijoles, an agentic product platform with an open-source SDK and CLI.
