VENTURES

Golden Frijoles · Miyagi Sánchez
2025 — Present

Founder & Product Lead · Two products in production, built with AI agent teams

- Golden Frijoles: a product-management platform that lets one person and their AI agents decide what to build, ship it safely and prove whether it paid off. 87 initiatives shipped in the open.
- Miyagi Sánchez: e-commerce infrastructure for Mexico, from prompt to shop. A merchant describes their business in one sentence and sells through their own site, WhatsApp and Instagram, in person, the marketplace and AI shopping assistants.
- Designed the operating model behind both: agents do the building inside clear limits, and people approve anything that touches money, security or customer data.
